

EURECOM BUSSIM 2024 – PEER ASSESSMENT 1

Your name: Brice Robert _____

Your company number: 4

Your company name: QLeap

Evaluating the effectiveness of oneself and others is a key part of a manager's role. In an increasingly competitive world, employee evaluation is one way to help ensure that all the members of the team are contributing fully to the future success of the business. At another level, it is unfair, and demoralizing, for hard-working effective team-members to be rewarded only at the same level as those who are not doing a such good job. Employee evaluation tries to ensure that rewards match effectiveness.

Evaluation is always a difficult task that requires the utmost professionalism. This form is designed to help you evaluate the relative effectiveness of yourself and the other members of your team.

This information is totally confidential, and will not be disclosed to anyone.

Instructions: READ CAREFULLY:

- You are required to split an annual bonus of € 40,000 between the members of your team, including yourself.
